Summary

CRM and lifecycle marketing specialist with 10+ years designing customer journeys that lift engagement, retention and repeat value — built on marketing automation, audience segmentation and a genuinely data-driven approach.

I own lifecycle end-to-end: mapping journeys across enquiry, onboarding, retention, inactivity and reactivation; running email and automated SMS programs on platforms like Klaviyo; segmenting audiences by behaviour and lifecycle stage; and testing, measuring and optimising every step. Automated SMS and direct messaging are a core part of how I lift response and engagement — I've used them to open conversations, drive pickup and pull customers into personalised quizzes and offers. I turn insight into action rather than dashboards into decoration, and keep the underlying customer data clean and structured so targeting actually works.

Apiam's purpose is what draws me most. I care about work that makes a real difference, and a national network caring for animals — and supporting the vets and communities who look after them — is exactly the kind of purpose-led organisation I want to put my skills behind. As a dad who wants to leave things better than I found them, helping a business like Apiam deepen the relationships behind that care is genuinely motivating.

Targeted fit for this role

- CRM & Lifecycle Marketing: 10+ years building lifecycle programs across enquiry, onboarding, retention, inactivity, cancellation and reactivation — the full journey this role owns.
- Customer Journeys & Segmentation: Design and implement end-to-end journeys built on audience segmentation by behaviour, activity and lifecycle stage across multiple brands.
- Email & SMS at Scale: Build, deploy and automate email and SMS campaigns at scale on Klaviyo, Hubspot and Salesforce — including automated SMS and direct messaging that opens conversations, lifts response and pickup rates, and pulls customers into quizzes and personalised offers.
- Conversion & Lifetime Value: Focused on the metrics this role drives — engagement, conversion, retention and repeat value — lifting subscription conversion and reactivation through better-timed, personalised communications.
- Data-Driven Insight to Action: Use GA4, BigQuery and Segment to spot trends, gaps and opportunities, then translate insight into practical campaign and journey improvements.
- Campaign Testing & Optimisation: Own campaign schedules, testing and ongoing optimisation — structured test-and-learn rather than set-and-forget.
- Clean, Structured Customer Data: Work with internal teams to keep customer data clean and well-structured so segmentation and targeting are accurate and effective.

- Platform Selection & Setup: Experienced selecting, setting up and integrating CRM and lifecycle platforms — including building reusable email design and intake workflows.
- Structured, Collaborative Delivery: A structured lifecycle thinker who simplifies data into clear actions and works effectively across marketing, sales and operations teams.
